Biography

Dr Chin Lay Fong has been a physiotherapist for more than 20 years and has special interest in upper limb stroke rehabilitation. She graduated from King's College, University of London with BSc(Hons) Physiotherapy in 1994 under the Public Service Commission (PSC) Scholarship. She completed her Master in Physiotherapy Studies (Neurological Physiotherapy) from The University of Queensland, Australia under Tan Tock Seng Hospital Scholarship in 2000. Dr Chin completed her PhD studies with The University of Queensland, Australia in 2021 under the NMRC Research Training Fellowship Award. With her pragmatism, Dr Chin seeks to introduce research evidence into clinical practice by taking into account constraints of the real clinical environment.
